What are the different practices universities and funding agencies have implemented as a response to COVID-19? How can the international research community support one another and work to maintain research activities during the pandemic?

Experts from The National Institutes of Health (US), University of Kent (UK), and Max Delbrück Center for Molecular Medicine in the Helmholtz Association (Germany) will answer these questions and more in a 90-minute webinar at 10:00 am EDT/2:00 pm UTC, Thursday, April 8, 2020.
